

First London Finance Fair

Paris, September 23rd 2015 | French Universities CentraleSupélec, College of Engineering and ESSEC Business School present the first London Finance Fair that will take place in London on Thursday, September 24th 2015.

After China and Brazil, this first Career Forum organized in Europe is proposed in the context of the close relationship developed with companies.

This recruitment forum will allow major international companies based in the United Kingdom to meet students and graduates who are bilingual and highly qualified, coming from ESSEC and Écoles Centrale Group : CentraleSupélec, Centrale Lyon, Centrale Lille, Centrale Nantes and Centrale Marseille.

The companies will present their opportunities of internship, international volunteering and job offers.

The participating companies are ALUMNEYE, ARDIAN, BARCLAYS, BLACKSTONE, BNP PARIBAS, COACHING ASSEMBLY, DEUSTCHE BANK, EDF ENERGY, EUROPEAN BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT, HSBC and NOMURA.

The London Finance Fair will be held from 2 pm to 8:30 pm. The meetings and recruitments will take place from 2 to 8 pm. Afterwards, the event will propose a round table on the issue of international careers and opportunities offered to the engineer-manager profiles in the fields of finance and services. It will be followed by a private networking cocktail.

A total of 240 students and alumni are invited to the London Finance Fair. The CentraleSupélec ones are currently in internship in the United Kingdom as well as following a double-degree with one of the CentraleSupélec's British academic partners : Cranfield University, Imperial College, London School of Economics, Oxford University, University of Cambridge and University Of Southampton.
